

PEGASUS THERAPEUTIC RIDING

All Special Needs, All Ages

VOLUNTEER ORIENTATION

SATURDAY OCT. 14, 2017

9:00 AM – 11:00 AM

Volunteers can choose the day or days they prefer to volunteer and choose their area of specialty from Side Walking the special needs rider in the arena, helping prepare riders for their equine assisted therapy session to offering administrative and computer/internet assistance and helping with our annual fund raisers.

We will have riders and horses to assist in the orientation. There will also be refreshments to enjoy.

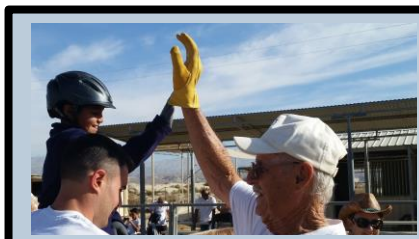

When coming to the ranch on orientation day, for your comfort and safety please wear enclosed toe shoes, boots or sneakers no sandals. Also bring a hat and sunglasses.

Regular classes resume on October 18, 2017, Wednesday at 8:30 am -Noon.

Pegasus serves more than 200 special needs children and adults at "NO Cost" to the riders and their families. Pegasus bus in special needs classes throughout the Unified School Districts from 8:30 am - Noon Wednesday through Friday. Saturday's riders come with their own transportation.

LOCATION: 35-450-B Pegasus Court, Palm Desert, CA 92211. Next to Xavier High School. Cook St to Chase School Road make right turn and drive into ranch. The paved road turns into a dirt road. North off 10 freeway cross Varner Street.

For more information call: Volunteer Coordinator, Kevin Marshall at 760.636-3685 or Stable: 760 .772.3057 and leave a message.

IF YOU MISS THE ORIENTATION ON OCT 14TH, YOU CAN COME ANY WED-SAT 8AM - 11AM. WE HAVE ORIENTATION FOR INDIVIDUALS ALL SEASON. PLEASE JOIN US WHEN YOU CAN.